the Entire City A story of rejection, ... to OFF GRID with DOUG & STACY: Come to the and ... Wharton research shows that spillover anger -- not sadness or another emotion -- leads to 1 John 4:1 "Dear friends, do not love the world, for if anyone loves the world, the love of the father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the desire of the flesh and the pride of life and the ambition of the world, these are not from the Father but from the world. And anyone who loves the world does not love the Father who has sent him into the world, because the Father hates the world, for the world is made of evil and hates the Father who created it. Anyone who loves the world is not loved by the Father and does not belong to Him. So do not let anyone who does these things persuade you, because they are receiving their just punishment. If you love the world, you do not love the Father who has sent you into the world. Therefore, if anyone has goods and sees a brother in need, but closes his heart to him, how can the love of God be in him? If anyone does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love the Father whom he has not seen? The love that remains in us is this: that we should love one another so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment. If anyone does not love his brother, he does not have the love of God in him. Therefore, if anyone has not loved his brother, God will not give him the Holy Spirit. So we love because of what we have seen: that the Father sent His only Son into the world to save us. And we love because we have seen that the Father has sent His Son into the world. And we love because we have seen that the Father has sent His Son into the world. The Bible warns that in the last days people will be
